Wills, Trusts, Probate, Estate Planning, Estate Litigation including Will Contests & Contested Guardianships & Conservatorships, & Selected Personal Injury Cases

Brian E. Jennings graduated cum laude in 1980 from the Thomas M. Cooley Law School in Michigan where he was a trial lawyer for fifteen years, practicing in the areas of personal injury and probate law. Previously, he had worked for six years in consumer protection for the State of Michigan and was a public school teacher.

Since his relocation to Albuquerque in 1995, he has concentrated his practice in the areas of probate and estate litigation, including contested guardian and conservator proceedings, will contests and other estate and trust disputes. He also writes wills for his clients and serves as guardian ad litem in protective proceedings and personal representative in estate matters.

He is a member of the Elder Law, Real Property, Probate & Trust, and Solo & Small Firm Practitioners Sections of the State Bar of New Mexico. He is a member of the Executive Board of both the Solo and Elder Law Sections as well as past chair of both of those Sections. Mr. Jennings is a past-president of the Albuquerque Lawyers Club. In 2007, he again will be the Chair of the Elder Law Section.

Mr. Jennings enjoys golf, music, gardening, travel and movies and is working on a budding acting career.
