

Eric Serna, a native New Mexican born and raised in Espanola, New Mexico, received his Bachelor of Arts degree from the University of New Mexico. He is a law graduate of the Catholic University of America, Columbus School of Law, in Washington, D.C. Eric is a member of the New Mexico State Bar, New Mexico Hispanic Bar Association, National Hispanic Bar Association, the American Bar Association, and duly admitted to practice before the United States Supreme Court.

Eric completed a Senior Executive Program Fellowship at Harvard University, John F. Kennedy School of Government and education programs at the National Judicial College in Reno, Nevada. He is a former National Chairperson of the Mexican American Legal Defense and Educational Fund and received a National MALDEFian Award. The New Mexico Hispanic Bar Association awarded him the Liberty and Justice Award and he is also the recipient of the Governor's Award for Public Service.

His professional achievements are exceeded only by the value of his voluntary participation in community service organizations. His compassion for people is evidenced by his mentoring of many New Mexican's particularly in the Hispanic community. He is a role model for New Mexicans' who may enter or consider a career in law or public service. His life's dedication to public service is a great benefit to the entire community.