PLEASE COMPLETE ALL SEVEN SECTIONS OF THE DUES AND LICENSING STATEMENT.

SECTION 1. 2012 ANNUAL REGISTRATION STATEMENT — RULE 17-202 (A) NMRA

Rule 17-202(A) NMRA requires every attorney admitted to practice in the state to submit to the State Bar of New Mexico and to the Clerk of the Supreme Court 1) a registration statement setting forth the address of record; and 2) the street address where client files or other materials related to the attorney's practice are located. Please make any necessary changes or additions.

NAME, ADDRESS OF RECORD AND STATE BAR ID NUMBER

Official address for service of notices, pleadings, papers and information. The "address of record" is a public record and upon request will be provided to any member of the public.

STREET ADDRESS: All attorneys must provide a street address where client files and other materials related to the attorney's practice are located.

My "street address" is different from "address of record," and I request the "street address" NOT be disclosed to the public.

Name, address of record, street address, phone, fax, email and web site address on file will appear in the 2012-2013 Bench & Bar Directory and on the State Bar's website and will be released in mailings and electronic membership lists requested from the State Bar.
