

Overview

The Center for Legal Education (CLE) of the New Mexico State Bar Foundation is a self-sustaining, nonprofit entity dedicated to providing high quality, affordable, professional training and education programs to the legal community. Live credit options include live seminars, video webcasts, video replays and teleseminars. Self-study credit options include on-demand streaming videos from your computer and DVDs. CLE receives no subsidy from membership licensing fees.

CLE Credit Information

New Mexico

CLE will file New Mexico attorney CLE credits with the New Mexico Supreme Court MCLE Board within 30 days following programs. Credits for live programs and video replays are based on the attendee sign-in sheets at the registration desk. Credits for teleseminar and online courses—video webcasts and on-demand streaming videos—are based on phone call and website attendance reports accessed by staff. Certificates of attendance are not necessary. Credits for DVD courses must be filed by attendees.

Other States and Paralegal Division

CLE will provide certificates of attendance upon request. Attendees are responsible for forwarding certificates to the organizations to which they belong.

Purpose and Use of Materials

These materials reflect the opinions of the authors and/or the reference sources cited and are not necessarily the opinions of the Center for Legal Education (CLE) of the New Mexico State Bar Foundation (NMSBF), the State Bar of New Mexico (SBNM), or any Division, Committee or Section thereof. They were prepared to furnish the participants with a general discussion of certain specific types of legal issues and problems commonly incurred in connection with representing clients in matters related to the subject of these materials. The issues selected for comment, and the comment concerning the issues selected, are not intended to be all-inclusive in scope, nor a definitive expression of the substantive law of the subject matters.

The issues discussed herein are intended as illustrative of the types of issues which can arise in the course of representation and are not intended to address, nor do they address the broad range of substantive issues which could potentially arise in the scope of such representation.

The authors/speakers suggest that careful independent consideration, to include a review of more exhaustive reference sources, be undertaken in representation of a client regarding this subject, and therefore the practitioner should not solely rely upon these materials presented herein.

No representation or warranty is made concerning the application of the legal or other principles discussed by CLE instructors or authors to any specific fact situation, nor is any prediction made concerning how any particular judge, or other official, will interpret or apply such principles. The proper interpretation or application of these materials is a matter for the considered judgment of the individual practitioner, and therefore CLE, NMSBF and SBNM disclaim all liability.

Disclaimer

Publications of the Center for Legal Education of the NMSBF and the SBNM are designed to provide accurate and current information with regard to the subject matter covered as of the time each publication is printed and distributed. They are intended to help attorneys and other professionals maintain their professional competence. Publications are sold with the understanding that CLE, NMSBF and SBNM are not engaged in rendering legal, accounting, or other professional advice. If legal advice or other expert assistance is required, the service of a competent professional should be sought. Attorneys using CLE, NMSBF and SBNM publications in dealing with specific legal matters should also research the original source of authority cited in these publications.
