Effective December 31, 2016, the New Mexico Supreme Court adopted modifications to Rule 17-204 NMRA which requires that an attorney must take a trust accounting class at least once every three years, or within the first year of being licensed in New Mexico. This program fulfills the requirement of Rule 17-204 NMRA, and is one of the New Mexico Disciplinary Board's ongoing programs designed to educate attorneys on proper practices and procedures. Currently, the State Bar of New Mexico Center for Legal Education is the only approved course provider. For more information, lawyers should carefully read Rule 17-204 NMRA. For those currently enrolled in the Bridge the Gap Mentorship Program, this CLE cost is included in your Mentorship Program fee. To register for the course, please contact the Center for Legal Education at 505-797-6020.
