

National Animal Law Appellate Moot Court Competition

Judges Needed!

It's that time again. As in years past, the Law School is participating in the National Animal Law Appellate Moot Court competition. Unlike years past, Marsha Baum is shepherding two teams instead of the usual one.

We are, again, looking for volunteers to serve as judges for the students' practice sessions. It is always an interesting and rewarding experience.

The practice sessions will be held Tuesdays, Thursdays, and Sundays between January 26 and February 17. The Tuesday and Thursday practices will held be from 7:00 to 9:00 pm; the Sunday practices will be held from 5:00 to 7:00 pm.

Once again, Gwenellen Janov will be coordinating the recruitment and scheduling of judges. Please let her know as soon as possible if you are interested and, if so, which date or dates you are willing to serve. You can reach her at gjanov@janovlaw.com and (505) 842-8302. She will provide you with the materials the students will be working with and, when they're ready, their bench briefs.

We thank you in advance for your willingness to help these students hone their arguments and skills.
